

S C I E N C E

At St. Catherine's, our science ethos is influenced by our school vision.

We believe that science should enable children to achieve excellence through enjoyment and investigation. It should motivate whilst building confidence and independence. All the while, developing resilience as it nurtures an inquisitiveness of the world beyond their own.